SAFER CITIES THRIVING COMMUNITIES

motorolasolutions.com/safercities →

Resources diminish and become harder to connect. Technology advances and overwhelms. Threats increase, but we're not in an arms race. We're in a communications race.

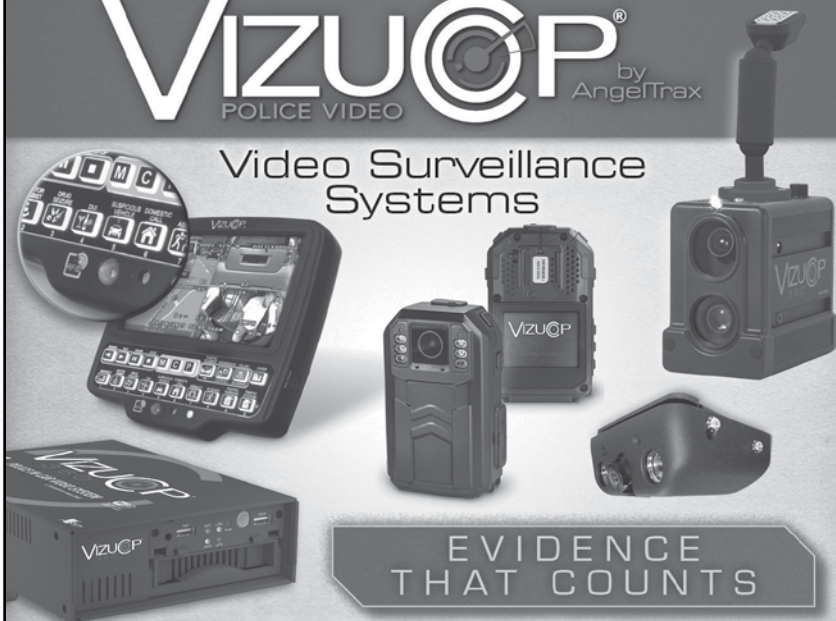

Within the information flowing between citizens, responders and agencies is the intelligence that builds a safer city. Motorola Solutions can help you collect more of it, make it actionable and securely distribute it across mission critical devices and easy-to-manage networks. It's the technology and expertise that turns noise into information, information into intelligence, and intelligence into safety. And it's how to do the absolute most with less – build safer cities, counties, states and provinces... and communities that thrive.

CLEARED FOR TAKEOFF

Avion Solutions has a 26-year military aviation background which serves as the foundation for our Avion Unmanned program. Avion Unmanned pilots continued their professional level service into the commercial UAS industry, and we comply with all FAA regulations and training standards. In addition to customized training support packages for agencies, we offer three options of training: classroom, online, and hands-on.

Avion Unmanned conducts counter-UAS scenarios with the Dept. of Defense, and develops emergency operations training for first responders.

CLEARED FOR TAKEOFF

Avion Solutions has a 26-year military aviation background which serves as the foundation for our Avion Unmanned program. Avion Unmanned pilots continued their professional level service into the commercial UAS industry, and we comply with all FAA regulations and training standards. In addition to customized training support packages for agencies, we offer three options of training: classroom, online, and hands-on.

Avion Unmanned conducts counter-UAS scenarios with the Dept. of Defense, and develops emergency operations training for first responders.

Resources diminish and become harder to connect. Technology advances and overwhelms. Threats increase, but we're not in an arms race. We're in a communications race.
